

Once upon a Granddad

A Story by Evie & Rachael Parkin

Once upon a Grandad

What story can you find hidden in “Once upon a Grandad”?

What is your favourite part of the story?

What was Grandad really doing in the story?

Why not try and write a story about your Grandad or Granma.

What kind of adventures would they get up to?

Try writing a “Twinkle” poem about your Grandad or Granma.

One day Grandad fell asleep on the sofa after a long day of watching Cricket.

When Grandad woke up he could hear someone in the kitchen. He went into the kitchen, only to see Susielocks eating his Crunchy Nut Cornflakes.

2

“Get out of my Kitchen!”
yelled Grandad!

Susielocks ran away!

Then Grandad could hear lots of noise outside, rattling in the bins.

Grandad went outside to see what was making all of the noise.

He looked behind the bins and saw it was the Three Little Parkins. They were trying to find something to build their houses to stop the Wolf from blowing them down.

5

“Get away from my bins!”
yelled Grandad
and the Three Little Parkins ran away.

Grandad could then hear lots of clicking coming from the small bedroom at the top of the stairs.

Grandad went up the stairs and opened the door. He saw Little Red Robin Hood sat at the computer, clicking the mouse, trying to find a red cape off of Ebay.

“Stop all that clicking!”
yelled Granddad
and Little Red Robin Hood
ran out of the room.

Grandad then heard a noise coming from the front garden. He went downstairs and looked out of the window to see Grandma waving goodbye to a cow and planting some funny little beans in the soil.

He opened the front door just in time to see the beans starting to grow and a big Beanstalk shot out of the ground and high into the sky!

10

Grandma and Grandad decided to climb up the beanstalk, higher and higher, to see what was at the very top.

Up and up it went,
past the roofs
of the houses and high into the clouds.

Suddenly,
Grandad's foot slipped
and he started falling to the ground.

11

Grandad landed with a bump and ...

... he opened his eyes to find himself face down on the carpet in front of the cricket on TV.
“What a strange dream!”
he said to himself. He picked himself up and went into the kitchen to make himself a large cup of hot coffee.

